Topic(s) addressed:

- 1) Increasing student engagement in large courses
- 2) Artificial intelligence and pedagogy
- 3) Inclusive design in teaching

The nomination packet (single PDF) includes these items in order:

- 1) This coversheet (must include dean’s signature)
- 2) Written confirmation of support from the dean and, where relevant, department chair/school director (no more than one page)
 - This letter should also list the nominee’s regular teaching and advising responsibilities, as well as their other roles within the department, school, or college.
- 3) A letter (no more than two pages) from someone (student or colleague) who can best represent the nominee as a teacher
 - This letter should address the nominee’s potential campus-wide contributions to and leadership around at least one of the topics selected by the provost.

NOTE: Concrete examples are more effective than general statements of praise.
- 4) A statement from the nominee on their philosophy of educational development (no more than three pages) which addresses:
 - Their experiences with at least one of the topics selected by the provost, in the context of teaching
 - How they have grown and developed as a teacher and where they hope to continue to grow
 - How they would secure wider faculty involvement around their topic
 - How their work as an MP Faculty Fellow can impact our campus after the completion of their appointment
 - How they create a learning environment welcoming to all in their work with students
- 5) An updated curriculum vitae

The nomination packet should not exceed eight pages, excluding the curriculum vitae.
